

KANSAS STATE SALINA UNIVERSITY
STUDENT GOVERNING ASSOCIATION
CONSTITUTION
(REVISED 2023)

The students of Kansas State University Salina, united in the belief that the goals of a democratic community can be furthered only by the citizenship habits, attitudes, skills, and knowledge acquired through experience; and that the degree of student development is likely to parallel closely the extent of responsibility which students carry for their own society, do hereby adopt this Constitution for the Kansas State University Salina Student Governing Association (K-State Salina SGA).

ARTICLE I

PURPOSE

101. Kansas State University Salina Student Governing Association shall officially use the abbreviation K-State Salina SGA for all official purposes where writing out the full name is impractical.
102. The purpose of the K-State Salina SGA shall be the establishment and maintenance of student government, the enactment and enforcement of just laws, the levying of student service fees, and the promotion of such activities as are appropriate for the student body.
103. The K-State Salina SGA, in pursuit of its stated purpose, shall act in accordance with the following principles: equality before the law; separation of powers; proportional representation; and universal suffrage.
104. This Constitution shall be understood to follow the general outlines of government and to define its important parts, while leaving the operational policies and details to be evolved from the development of these parts to attain the greatest good for the greatest number of the Student Body.
105. It is recognized that the President of the University is responsible to the Board of Regents for all phases of the university administration and that the authority for student personnel policies and/or practices emanates from them.
106. Source of Authority. Within the sphere of student activity (as limited in Section 104 above) the K-State Salina SGA shall derive authority from the mandate of the student body.

ARTICLE II

ELECTIONS

201. Any person recognized by the K-State Salina SGA as a student at K-State Salina (for fee purposes) shall be a member of the K-State Salina student body, with the privilege of voting in such matters as are brought before the entire student body.
202. The Elections Committee shall be responsible for the equitable running of all K-State Salina SGA elections and shall establish such campaigning regulations as they see fit.
203. Date of Elections
- A. The election date for all K-State Salina SGA general elections shall be set to facilitate the University wide election for the University Student Body President (as outlined in the Constitution and Bylaws of the KSU (Manhattan) SGA). In the absence of direction from the Manhattan Elections Committee, the election will be held on the Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of the week prior to spring break.
 - B. In the event that the election cannot be held as outlined in Section A due to circumstances outside of the K-State Salina SGA's control, or a special election is needed for the purpose of filling vacant positions, the Attorney General may set the election or any special election outside of this timeframe. If the Attorney General Position is vacant, this authority will fall to the Student Body President.
204. Definition of S.G.A. Elected Officials
- A. The K-State Salina SGA elected officials and the elected offices shall be the Student Body President, the Student Body Vice President, and Student Senate Chair, and members of the Senate.
205. Eligibility of Candidacy.
- A. Student Body President and Student Body Vice President. Any member of the K-State Salina SGA who is enrolled in a minimum of twelve (12) credit hours, or six (6) credit hours if serving during last semester prior to graduation, and maintains a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.0 or higher is eligible to be a candidate for Student Body President or Student Body Vice-President. A student who would not be able to serve out their full term due to a planned graduation from the college shall not be eligible to be a candidate for Student Body President or Student Body Vice President.
 - B. Senators. Any K-State Salina Student who is enrolled in a minimum of twelve (12) credit hours with a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 or higher is eligible to become a Senator. The Student may represent only the section in which they are enrolled (or in which they have declared a major, unless otherwise outlined in this Constitution).

ARTICLE III BRANCHES

301. The principal branches of the K-State Salina SGA shall be the executive, legislative, and judicial.
302. To ensure the consistency needed in the maintenance and operation of the K-State Salina SGA, all branches (legislative, executive, and judicial) shall be responsible for keeping a record of rules, regulations, and the minutes of meetings.
303. Each branch shall form rules for carrying out its functions. New rules established by each branch must be passed with a 2/3 vote of the K-State Salina SGA Senate. Appeals of constitutionality will be made to the Judicial Board through the Attorney General.

ARTICLE IV
EXECUTIVE

401. The executive power of the K-State Salina SGA shall be vested in the Student Body President, assisted by the Student Body Vice President, and such administrative officers as the Student Body President shall appoint in accordance with this Article.
402. Terms of Office of the Student Body President and Vice President.
- A. The Student Body President and Student Body Vice President shall be elected for one (1) year by voice of the general membership of the K-State Salina SGA in such manner as shall be prescribed in the By-Laws.
 - B. No Student Body President shall be eligible for re-election to the position after serving two (2) terms in office.
 - C. The Student Body President and Student Body Vice President shall be required to maintain a minimum of twelve (12) hours undergraduate credit during the fall and spring semesters to remain in office, with the exception of allowing six (6) hours undergraduate credit if serving the semester prior to graduation.
403. Succession of Power
- A. The Student Body President and Student Body Vice President shall take office at the third (3rd) meeting of the K-State Salina SGA following the general election.
 - B. During such period, the outgoing Student Body President shall help prepare the Student Body President-Elect for office by giving such assistance and advice as may be requested within reason.
 - C. Also, during such period, the outgoing Student Body Vice President shall help prepare the Student Body Vice President-Elect for office by giving such assistance and advice as may be requested within reason.
404. The Student Body President and Student Body Vice President shall not, during the term of office, hold any other office in the K-State Salina SGA except as outlined in the By-Laws to this Constitution.
405. The Student Body President and Student Body Vice President shall not, during the term of office, hold the position of President of any other club or organization.
406. In the case of the removal, death, resignation, inability or temporary absence of the Student Body President, succession shall be as set forth in Article 408 (A) (1), and then by the By-Laws to this Constitution.
407. Elected members of the Executive Branch of the K-State Salina SGA may be removed from office through plea of impeachment by the K-State Salina SGA Senate and conviction by Judicial Board on charges of malfeasance, misfeasance, or nonfeasance in office.

408. Duties and Powers of the Student Body President.

- A. Serve as Chief Executive of the K-State Salina SGA.
- B. Represent and protect the rights and interests of the student body.
- C. Approve or veto all K-State Salina SGA Senate legislation. The power to veto shall extend to all bills and resolutions passed by the K-State Salina SGA Senate except those bills and resolutions dealing with purely internal affairs of the K-State Salina SGA Senate (approvals of appointments, bills of impeachment, standing rules, and resolutions expressing only the opinion of the K-State Salina SGA Senate). Within eight days after passage, every bill or resolution requiring the approval of the Student Body President shall be presented to them. If the Student Body President approves the bill or resolution, they shall sign it. If the Student Body President does not approve the bill or resolution, the President shall return it to the K-State Salina SGA Senate with a statement of objections, which shall be read into the record at the next meeting of the K-State Salina SGA Senate. If the President vetoes legislation, they must notify the Senate Chair within 24 hours of the next meeting, and the President must read the veto message at that meeting. Whenever a veto message is so read, the Student Senate shall have eight days to reconsider the legislation and such action shall be deemed final. If two-thirds of the total membership of the K-State Salina SGA Senate shall vote to pass the legislation, it shall take effect, regardless of the Student Body President's veto. If no written veto is transmitted to the K-State Salina SGA Senate within eight days after presentation to the Student Body President, the legislation shall take effect as if the President had approved it.
- D. Request the written interpretation of the Judicial Board on any provision of this Constitution, charter, or law pertaining to the student body, or any K-State Salina SGA Senate act.
- E. Examine the records of the Secretary of the K-State Salina SGA, any administrative office of the K-State Salina SGA and those of any committee formed by the K-State Salina SGA (with the exception of judicial records). They may do so at any time.
- F. Appoint, with the approval of the K-State Salina SGA Senate, cabinet members (as specified in Section 409) who shall be responsible to the Student Body President for execution of their duties and subject to removal from office by the President.
- G. Appoint, or assign, designee student members of the Parking and Campus Safety Committee and the Appeals committee with the approval of the Parking and Campus Safety Committee.
- H. Take care that all provisions of this Constitution and the laws of the K-State Salina SGA are faithfully executed.
- I. Delegate authority to cabinet members, but accept all responsibilities for the executive branch of the K-State Salina SGA.

In the event legislation is rescinded by the Kansas State University Administration it shall be transmitted in writing to the K-State Salina SGA President who shall then present it to the Senate at the next scheduled meeting for reconsideration.

J. As the President of the Student Government Association, and the leader of the Cabinet, the Student Body President shall be the person to receive proxy forms from, and excuse absences by, Cabinet Members.

K. If a Cabinet position is vacant, the President is responsible for the duties of said Cabinet member, unless delegated to the Vice-President or another Cabinet member.

 - 2. The Dean of the K-State Salina may authorize any designee to solely impose sanctions in certain circumstances.
- C. The designee by the authority of the Dean of K-State Salina, assigns the operation of the judicial program to the K-State Salina SGA. This authority shall be vested in the K-State Salina SGA Judicial Branch, composed of the Judicial Board.
- D. This judicial power shall include the disposition of:
 - 1. Non-academic university disciplinary complaints against students,
 - 2. Violations of the K-State Salina SGA Constitution and By-Laws, Conduct Code, Residence Life Policies, Housing, and Dining Services Contracts, and
 - 3. Other interferences with any student's rights and freedoms.
- E. The K-State Salina SGA Attorney General shall be appointed by the Student Body President and shall serve on their Cabinet. The appointment shall be subject to the approval of the K-State Salina SGA Senate. Unless otherwise provided, the Attorney General, in consultation with the Student Body President, shall appoint members to the Judicial Board.

602. Composition of the Judicial Board

- A. Members of the Judicial Board shall serve one-year terms and the membership shall be as described below.
- B. The Attorney General's term shall begin immediately upon appointment to the position and conclude when relieved by their successor (as appointed by the new Student Body President). If the Attorney General resigns, permanently unable to discharge their duties, or is removed from office, the Chief Justice of the Judicial Board shall succeed to the office of Attorney General to perform their duties. In the temporary absence of the Attorney General, the Chief Justice of the Judicial Board shall exercise the powers and duties of the Attorney General.

- C. The Judicial Board shall be composed of the following five voting members, the designee of the Dean and the K-State Salina SGA Attorney General (who both serve as advisors to the Board), and five (5) students as follows:
 - 1. One (1) student appointed by the Residential Assistants.
 - 2. One (1) member at large appointed by the Attorney General.
 - 3. One (1) student unaffiliated with an organized living group appointed by the Student Body President.
 - 4. One (1) Senator appointed by the Student Body President.
 - 5. One (1) member at large, jointly appointed by the Attorney General and the Student Body President.
 - 6. Of the above members, one shall be appointed as the Chief Justice of the Judicial Board by the Attorney General (and confirmed by the Senate in that position). This Chief Justice shall be responsible for the day-to-day running of the Judicial Board, in consultation with the Attorney General.
 - D. Membership of the Judicial Board shall be subject to the approval of K-State Salina SGA Senate.
 - E. During periods when Judicial Board members are unavailable (or as the need arises,) the designee of the Dean, after consultation with the Attorney General (or designee), may appoint an ad hoc judicial board. Such ad hoc boards shall be composed of at least two (2) students and one (1) faculty-staff member, preferably with prior judicial experience.
 - F. No member of the Judicial Board shall hold elected office in either the executive or legislative branch of the K-State Salina SGA unless specifically permitted by the Constitution and By-Laws.
 - G. The designee of the Dean, in consultation with the Attorney General, shall develop policies for the administration of the judicial program and procedural rules for the conduct of hearings. Such policies are subject to the approval of the Senate and must be consistent with provisions of the Conduct Code.
603. Members of the Judicial Board may be impeached by the K-State Salina SGA Senate for misfeasance, malfeasance, or nonfeasance upon a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the total membership of the K-State Salina SGA Senate.
604. The final decision of any judicial board may be appealed in accordance with Article V, Section 9 of the By-Laws.

ARTICLE VII

901. Any member of the K-State Salina SGA may propose an amendment to this Constitution, which must be approved by three-fourths (3/4) majority vote of the total K-State Salina SGA Senate selected and qualified.
902. Revisions to the K-State Salina SGA Constitution may not be introduced and moved to final action during the same meeting of the K-State Salina SGA Student Senate.

ARTICLE X

INITIATIVE, REFERENDUM, AND PLEBISCITE

1001. Initiative

- A. The members of the K-State Salina SGA shall have the power to propose legislation for inaction or rejection at the polls. This power shall be known as the initiative.

1002. Initiative Procedure

- A. An initiative petition shall contain the full text of the measure proposed and, to be valid, shall be signed by five percent (5%) of the K-State Salina SGA members.
- B. Upon the presentation of such a petition to the Senate, the Senate must vote within two weeks. Should the measure fail, it shall be referred to the student body for adoption of the measure on the ballot at a special election held within four weeks or at the next regular election, whichever comes first.
- C. Regulations may be enacted in the By-Laws to this Constitution to govern the collection and validation of signatures on the initiative petition.

1003. Referendum

- A. The Senate, by majority vote, may refer a measure to the members of the K-State Salina SGA to approve or reject. This process shall be known as the referendum.

1004. Referendum Procedure

- A. The legislation calling for a referendum shall include the full text of the proposed measure and shall provide that the question of the adoption of the measure be placed on the ballot of a special election held within four weeks or at the next regular election whichever comes first.

1005. Passage of Legislation by the Initiative and Referendum

- A. Each measure shall be submitted on the ballot by a title, which shall be descriptive but not argumentative or prejudicial. The full text of each measure submitted on the ballot shall be available at each polling place.
- B. The veto power of the Student Body President shall not extend to measures initiated by, or referred to, the members of the K-State Salina SGA.
- C. Any measure submitted to the membership of the K-State Salina SGA shall become effective when approved by sixty percent (60%) of the votes cast thereon and approval of the election results by the K-State Salina SGA senate.
- D. Campaigning for or against the initiative or referendum shall be at least 15 feet away from any polling station.

1006. Restrictions on Initiative and Referendum

- A. No measure adopted by the members of the K-State Salina SGA under the initiative or referendum provisions above may be repealed or amended within a period of one year unless by a three-fourths (3/4) vote of all the members of the Senate selected and qualified.
- B. No measure rejected by the voters under the initiative or referendum provisions above may be passed by the Student Senate within a period of one year unless by a three-fourths (3/4) vote of all the members of the Senate selected and qualified.

1007. Plebiscite

- A. The Student Senate may place on the ballot, at a special or regular election, a question upon which the members of the K-State Salina SGA may express their opinion of approval, disapproval, or preference. Such a question shall be known as a plebiscite. The outcome of a plebiscite shall be considered the official expression of student opinion on the issue.

ARTICLE XI

STUDENT RIGHTS

1101. The following rights are guaranteed to students:

- A. The right of those employed by the university to join or form unions and enter into collective bargaining;
- B. The right to petition for changes in curriculum or faculty;
- C. The right to a fundamentally fair process, including a fair hearing, in all disciplinary matters and to be judged in part or entirely by students, with right of appeal;
- D. The right to free and timely access to statements of policy which affect students; the university therefore should publish policies affecting students;
- E. The right to freedom from unreasonable and unauthorized search, seizure, and detention;
- F. The right to be tried and/or punished no more than once for the same offense, except in cases of violations of university rules and those expressly controlled by a jurisdiction above that of the K-State Salina SGA;
- G. The right to exercise full rights as a citizen in forming and participating in campus, local, national or international organizations for intellectual, religious, social, political, economic or cultural purposes and to publish and/or disseminate individual views and those of organizations on or off campus;
- H. The right to conduct research freely and to publish, discuss, and exchange any findings of recommendations whether individually or in association with local, national or international groups;
- I. The right to organize and join organizations in their common interests;
- J. The right of any organization to enjoy registration in all cases, provided they comply with the regulations for registration as stipulated in the By-Laws to the K-State Salina SGA;
- K. The right of K-State Salina SGA registered organizations to participate freely in off-campus activities, subject only to procedural regulations;
- L. The right of students and K-State Salina SGA registered organizations to use campus facilities subject to such regulations as are required for scheduling meeting times and places;
- M. The right of students and K-State Salina SGA registered organizations to invite and hear speakers of their choice on subjects of their choice; and
- N. The rights to establish, print, and disseminate publications free of any censorship or other pressures designed to control editorial policy, with the selection and removal of editorial staffs reserved solely to the organization sponsoring those publications. (In cases, however, where a publication enjoys a monopoly of university facilities and finances, the registering authority may properly insist on adequate safeguards in the constitution of the publication to ensure that the requirements for membership be limited to interest, activity, and journalistic ability. The staff of the publication shall administer those safeguards, but in any case, where a person considers they have been unjustly removed from or unjustly prevented from joining the staff, such person may present a complaint to their board of local jurisdiction.)

1102. The enumeration of certain rights herein shall not be construed as to nullify or limit any other rights possessed by students.

ARTICLE XII

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

1201. The following rights are expressly granted to student organizations:

- A. A student organization must meet the following requirements to be considered for recognition.
 - 1. Have at least five (5) student members (or 3 provisional members to start an organization).
 - 2. Have a Kansas State University faculty or staff member as an advisor to the club.
 - 3. Have on file with the Office of Student Life a copy of the club's constitution, registration form, and any other governing documents.
 - 4. Have at least one meeting per fall and spring semester on the K-State Salina Campus.
 - 5. Meet any other requirements set forth by the Office of Student Life, the K-State Salina SGA, or the Bylaws to the Constitution.
- B. A probationary period of two months shall be applied to all new clubs upon passage of recognizing legislation by the K-State Salina SGA.
 - 1. The probationary period shall be removed at the end of two months unless formal legislation of objection is brought before the K-State Salina SGA Senate at which point the recognition may be revoked by a simple majority of the K-State Salina SGA Senate.
- C. A recognized student organization shall enjoy the right and privilege to publish its recognition in the organizations publication within the bounds set forth in the Bylaws to the Constitution.
- D. Any recognized student organization that meets the following criteria shall be able to request allocations funds:
 - 1. Attend President's Roundtable as defined by the Allocation's Packet and/or the Vice President.
 - 2. Agree to all the guidelines set in the allocations packet.
 - 3. Abide by any guidelines set by Kansas State University and Kansas State University Salina
- E. The Treasurer and/or President shall have the right to put forward recommendations for allocations that do not meet all qualifications in special circumstances, so long as those exceptions are outlined in legislation, approved by the Senate, and are within the guidelines of all other SGA law and University rules.
- F. A recognized student organization shall enjoy the right and privilege to be included in any listing of organizations published by the K-State Salina SGA.
- G. A recognized student organization may lose its recognition if it fails to meet the requirements set forth in Paragraph A or upon a simple majority passage of decertification legislation brought before the K-State Salina SGA Senate.

- H. Funding for recognized student organizations shall be applied as per the Bylaws to the K-State Salina SGA Constitution, the Allocations Committee, Treasurer, and/or the decisions of the K-State Salina SGA Senate.
- I. Disbursement of K-State Salina SGA funds to SGA recognized organizations is at the discretion of the K-State Salina SGA Senate which shall not be required to disburse funds.
